The Home Depot Honors Niagara as a Kitchen and Bath Partner of the Year

Niagara Additionally Honored with 14 National Recognitions for Water Conserving Ingenuity This Year

FLOWER MOUND, TEXAS – Nov. 7, 2022 – Niagara®, the leader in high-performance, high-efficiency, water-saving toilets, was recently honored as the Kitchen and Bath Partner of the Year by The Home Depot®, the world's largest home improvement retailer.

As many Americans look to reduce water consumption through products that can help alleviate high utility bills and reduce impacts of drought in the U.S., Niagara continues to innovate and be nationally recognized for its high-performing, water-saving products. This is Niagara's 14th award or accolade this year that recognizes the company's ingenuity in water conservation technology and products.

"We are thrilled to have been named The Home Depot Partner of the Year in the Kitchen and Bath category," said Carl Wehmeyer, executive vice president at Niagara. "We could not have won this award without the continual support of our merchant and the rest of The Home Depot team"

Niagara has partnered with The Home Depot for over 15 years, continuing to innovate and provide on-time delivery of products. Niagara has also partnered with The Home Depot Foundation to fund home repairs through Habitat for Humanity, Volunteers of America and many more.

In just the last few months, Niagara was recently honored with The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA's) WaterSense Partner of the Year award for helping people save water. Niagara also received a bronze award for best product of the year from the Global Good Awards which recognizes businesses, NGOs, charities and social enterprises around the world who are driving social and environmental change.
